YOUR STAND AT ITB BERLIN

FOUR IMPORTANT QUESTIONS YOU SHOULD ANSWER FIRST:

1 In which hall would you like to be?
ITB Berlin features not only geographical organization but also thematic segments which help visitors and exhibitors quickly find their way through the vast amounts of service offerings the trade show has to offer. Detailed information about the different segments can be found at www.itb-berlin.com/segments. Please note that stand allocation is based on availability.

2 How much space do you need?
Allow for enough space to accomplish your trade show goals. You should take into account the number of potential co-exhibitors and the amount of space your competitors used the previous year. Layout is also important – space for presentations, catering, meetings, image building, receiving visitors and related functions needs to be carefully considered.

3 Which type of participation is the most promising?
You can present your organization with your own trade show stand or in the framework of a shared stand or pavilion. An individual stand can be individually coordinated to express your organization’s corporate design and is available in many sizes. Participation in a shared stand costs less and requires less work: as a co-exhibitor of a country or association, or as a sub-exhibitor of a partner organization, you can benefit from the experience of the main exhibitor, and you will have less front end organization work.

4 Which type of stand is best?
There are stands with one, two, three or four open sides. The more open sides you have, the more visible you are to visitors. Row stands have the lowest prices. A surcharge is imposed on corner, peninsula and island stands.

FAST AND EASY STAND REGISTRATION

In order to consider our exhibitors’ wishes and to ensure that both the exhibitors and the organizer can plan effectively, we need to receive all stand registration forms by 1 September. If you have any questions regarding your stand registration, please contact the ITB Berlin team. You can find your personal contact person here: www.itb-berlin.com/organiser.

Simply download the stand registration form from the ITB Berlin website, fill out the PDF on your computer, and email it to us. Of course, if you prefer, you can print it out and fax it. The document also contains the exhibition terms and conditions for participating in ITB Berlin.

After having received and checked your stand registration, we will send you a stand offer as quickly as possible. Please confirm your stand offer as soon as possible – ideally, via email.

STAND REGISTRATION

WHAT IS THE PROMOTION PACKAGE?
The services of the obligatory promotional package include listings in the ITB App, at the ITB Berlin Virtual Market Place and in the ITB Exhibitor Index of ITB QuickFinder.

WHAT IS THE AUMA FEE?
The AUMA fee of EUR 0.60/sqm of exhibition area is levied in accordance with the agreement with the Association of the German Trade Fair Industry (AUMA).

WHY DO I HAVE TO PROVIDE A PERSONAL EMAIL ADDRESS?
We send the latest information and advice about ITB Berlin as well as the most important deadlines to the email address you provide under “contact person” on the stand registration form.

WHEN WILL THE BILLS BE SENT?
You will receive a Down Payment Invoice from ITB Berlin until mid-February. The Final Invoices are normally sent out until end of May.

IS MY COMPANY EXEMPT FROM VALUE ADDED TAX (VAT)?
If you are taking part in ITB Berlin and your organization is located outside of Germany, please fill out the VAT-ID form in the stand registration. Companies based outside the European Union: Please add a copy of your business certificate, and if applicable, an informal translation in English or German. Our colleagues will determine if you are exempt from VAT.

TRADE SHOW PRESENCE

CONCEPTION AND CONSTRUCTION OF A SUCCESSFUL TRADE SHOW STAND

First of all, fine-tune the overall concept of your trade show stand so that it represents your goals. In addition to interesting exhibits, your trade show stand should also present your company’s philosophy. The main focus of the concept behind the stand should be a convincing design – attractive, inviting and perfectly in tune with your objectives for the trade show.

SYSTEM STAND OR INDIVIDUALLY DESIGNED STAND?

As a general principle, you can present yourself at ITB Berlin with a system stand or individually-designed stand. System stands employ low-priced, pre-fabricated parts, which are easy to transport and store; they require fewer personnel for assembly and disassembly. Modern system stands nowadays allow a great deal of latitude towards custom design.

With an individually-designed stand, you can most precisely implement your own design ideas; this makes individually-designed stands more expensive. A combination using system components and individual construction methods is popular, as it allows for a comparatively large amount of variability. Whether you opt for a system stand or an individually-designed stand: A re-usable stand is definitely more cost-effective, and usually better for the environment, too.

TECHNICAL DETAILS & GUIDELINES

When planning your trade show presence, please do not forget to implement the technical guidelines for stand construction, safety regulations, and so on. You can download the guidelines here: www.itb-berlin.com/exhibitors. Additionally, we offer you further Trade Show Planning Tools and information for your stand constructors on our website at www.itb-berlin.de/en/exhibitors/TradeShowPlanning/PlanningTools.

WE ARE PLEASED TO OFFER SUPPORT WITH YOUR STAND CONSTRUCTION

Our subsidiary company, MB Capital Services GmbH, is pleased to help you with all questions regarding your trade show stand – from planning and design to construction: www.mb-capital-services.com.
IMPORTANT KEY WORDS FOR A SUCCESSFUL TRADE SHOW STAND

COLOR > Use the colors and design of your trade show stand to reflect your corporate identity. The colors should underline your most important messages without being distracting. Keep in mind how colors affect us.

IMPACT > Use large, easily-readable messages and slogans. Slogans should be unique and authentic: It's better not to have a slogan at all than to have a stale one.

PICTURES > Use pictures and photos – after all, a picture is worth more than a thousand words. Motives with people have a greater effect than landscapes. Exceptional forms and powerful colors attract attention, e.g. motives which have been altered.

TECHNOLOGY > Present yourself visually – with films and multimedia applications. Installations attract attention - make it easier to establish contact with visitors and help fill in waiting time.

LIGHT > Use illumination to accentuate important areas of your stand. Illuminated areas suggest that there is something special to see. Be careful with bright lights – they can be too bright and also give off heat.

DECORATION > Flowers and plants create an inviting atmosphere.

FUNCTIONALITY > Equip your stand with enough meeting areas, perhaps with a bar and sitting area. Easily-accessible sitting areas invite people to stay for a while.

MULTI-SENSORY > Integrate olfactory stimuli (fragrances), tactile elements (wall material, floor covering) and taste based elements (food, drinks) into your stand concept.

SOUNDS > Unexpected, pleasant sounds and tones (primeval forest, waves, wind) and applause attract attention.

INTERACTION > Get your customers to interact. Contests and drawings attract an audience to your stand. Let them try out innovations and/or exhibits that are typical for your company.

GIVEAWAYS > Special and authentic giveaways create a positive association with your company and serve as an introduction for discussions.

OFFICE SUPPLIES > Don’t forget to bring a stapler, scissors, double-sided adhesive tape, memo pads, markers, pens, paperclips, etc.

SUSTAINABILITY > During the planning process – stand, advertising, waste management – don’t forget to consider the environmental impact of the materials you’re planning to use.

VIRTUAL REALITY > VR glasses allow trade show visitors to experience your destination or services.

ACCESSIBILITY > Make sure you have barrier-free access for visitors with walking or visual impairments, e.g. with ramps, steps and furniture rich in contrast, adequate passage widths, movable seats, and the height of counters and meeting areas.

BEST EXHIBITOR AWARDS

During the trade visitor days, an independent jury of around 30 junior tourism experts from the Cologne Business School (CBS) will evaluate all the stands of ITB Berlin according to a specified list of criteria which was developed especially for this event. Quality characteristics like stand design, service competence, transfer of information and creativity will determine the winners. Traditionally, the Best Exhibitor Award is presented on the exhibition grounds on the evening of ITB Saturday. All details about the Best Exhibitor Award can be found here: www.cbs-bea.com
SERVICES FOR YOUR SUCCESS

BERLIN EXPOCENTER ONLINE (BECO)
Starting in October, all of our services can be found online in our webshop – Berlin ExpoCenter online (BECO) – here: www.itb-berlin.com/webshop. The webshop is your ordering platform for all the products and services you will need for your trade show participation.

CATERING AT THE STAND
Exhibitors who offer visitors something tasty keep them longer at the stand. For example, you can offer gastronomic specialties of your region. You are not allowed to sell food or beverages, however. By the way, our subsidiary, Capital Catering, can help you with all questions regarding the gastronomical well-being of your guests: www.capital-catering.com
Contact: projekte@capital-catering.de

EVENTS AT THE STAND
Panel discussions, presentations and shows attract press and visitors. Stand parties can strengthen your image in a multidimensional way and create opportunities for informal meetings. Please note that your event must be registered (via the webshop) by 31 January 2018.

Events can take place from 10:00 am and must finish by 6:00 pm. Events can only take place in your assigned booth space – not in the aisles. Musical performances before 6:00 pm on trade show days are generally prohibited. Presentations using amplified sound must always be arranged in advance with both trade fair management and your stand neighbors.

Please also note that there are fees for events which take place between 6:00 pm until 10:00 pm (outside of official trade fair operating hours), e.g. for security personal (mandatory) and other services, such as barriers, sanitation personnel, cloakroom, (emergency) medical services, etc. Event guests who arrive before the end of the trade fair day require a valid trade fair ticket.
Detailed information: itb@messe-berlin.de

BUSINESS CENTERS: FOR ALL THOSE IMPORTANT THINGS
You can find Business Centers at different points on the exhibition grounds. They are useful facilities offering photo copying, telephone, Internet, computers, scanning, burning CDs, prepaid normal/SIM telephone cards, laptop connections, business cards and much more.

CLEANING AND SECURITY
We would be pleased to give you a custom-made service offer for keeping your stand clean and secure. Our cleaning companies offer reliable, professional cleaning and waste management services, both before the trade show starts as well as for the evenings when the trade show is taking place. You can also book stand security cover to keep your stand and exhibition merchandise under surveillance day and night, as well as during the construction and disassembly times. In any case, we definitely recommend that you insure your valuable exhibition materials.

THE FOUR KEY POSITIONS FOR STAND OPERATIONS
In order to ensure the success of your trade show stand, we recommend that you keep four key positions filled. If you have a smaller stand, multiple positions can be carried out by one employee.

THE HOOKER
attracts the attention of visitors who are passing by. This can be a friendly hostess with candies or a clown with a rubber microphone; the possibilities are virtually endless.

THE CHECKER
personally greets every visitor. He/She clarifies the reason for the visit: Is the visitor only interested in giveaways? Does the visitor want to sell something? Or could this be a potential customer who can be immediately directed to the seller?

THE SELLER
does what his/her name says. This person is optimally trained to answer all questions about your products.

THE TRACKER
immediately puts the data from the visitor’s business card into the database and writes a follow-up email afterwards.

YOUR STAND STAFF IS AN IMPORTANT FACTOR FOR YOUR SUCCESS
If you would like to successfully reach your customers, not only do you need to have enough personnel for your stand, but the staff also needs to have the right skills. Messe Berlin would be pleased to help you find stand personnel: www.mb-capital-services.com
Personnel for your stand, as well as for building up and disassembling your stand, can also be found via the German Employment Agency: spandau.jobvermittlung@arbeitagentur.de
You will achieve the best results when you train your personnel before the trade show begins. The final briefing should be no later than on the last day before the trade show begins, and the procedures at the stand should be clearly explained. We recommend a feedback round after each day of the trade show in order to best identify problems and coordinate the following days.

Stand personnel training should include the following topics:
- Trade show objectives and target groups
- Co-operation partners and potential customers
- 30 second description of what you offer
- Interpersonal communication
- Writing dialogue reports
- Stand procedures and code of conduct
- Dress code, accessories and nametags
- Work schedule, hierarchies and precise assignment of responsibilities
- Special promotions and events during ITB Berlin
- Team introduction – including external personnel
TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL COMMUNICATION

“How can I help you?” is a better opening question than “Can I help you?” The very best, however, is when your staff members directly respond to the visitor’s curiosity or interest: “I can see you’re having a look at our product. What’s most interesting about it to you? When would you consider using it?” The answer quickly reveals whether the visitor is truly interested.

THESE QUESTIONS LEAD TO SALES:

• “How could you utilize this product?”
• “What requirements do you have for such a product?”
• “What criteria do you use when deciding to make a purchase?”
• “What is particularly important to you with regard to such a product?”

It’s crucial that your staff recognize the customer’s signals, build confidence in their communication and analyze what sort of products the customer is interested in buying, if any. The advantages of any products being considered for purchase should then be clearly explained to the visitor. At the end of the talk, you need to arrange the course of action that follows – and write notes about all of the important points in a dialogue report. By the way: constructive trade show talks focus on content, so it’s good to set time limits.

DIALOGUE REPORTS – THE BASIS FOR SUCCESSFUL FOLLOW-UP

Successful trade show talks have a result: an additional appointment, sending samples, offers, etc. Every single outcome and every visitor contact should be documented in a dialogue report. Ready-made dialogue reports will help you gather information quickly and later serve as a basis for follow-up. There should definitely be room for four essential questions:

• WHO? (target group, contact details)
• WHAT? (which product groups were of interest)
• HOW? (what’s the next step: send an offer, expect a call, etc.)
• WHEN? (priority – assign a priority level to each contact)

TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL GENERAL PUBLIC DAYS

EMOTIONAL APPEAL Private visitors are more responsive to pictures and exhibits than straight text. Change your stand accordingly for the weekend.

ACTIONS AT THE STAND Giveaways, show elements and prize drawings attract visitors to your stand. Whether you plan to offer a tasting, music and dance performance, costumes, photo sessions or mascots, make sure you have enough space.

FLEXIBLE USAGE If your co-exhibitors are only interested in trade visitors, they can let other partners or travel agencies use their stand area on the weekend.

Clever Personnel Planning Please make sure that your stand is staffed until 6:00 pm on ITB Sunday. Stands which are disassembled early, and empty stands, have a negative impact on your image.

EFFICIENT SPONSORING The ITB Travel Raffle (Hall 4.1) will be promoted across many media platforms. As a sponsor of one of the travel prizes, you are sure to benefit.
