How the Big ITB Berlin 2019 travel raffle works

Go to the counter next to the stage in Hall 4.1 and exchange your ticket stub for an ITB travel raffle Coupon*. Without the particular ticket stub, no coupon will be handed out. Moreover only one coupon will be given in exchange per person.

Mark the correct answer to the question and throw your ticket stub with the ID number into the raffle box. This will ensure your participation in the next drawing.

Be aware that the raffle box will be closed 10 minutes prior to the beginning of the drawing in order to ensure a smooth execution of the ITB travel raffle.

The drawings take place directly after the four rounds of the game which are expected to take place on Saturday March 9th 2019 at 1pm and 4pm as well as Sunday March 10th 2019 at 1pm and 4pm. In these game-rounds, every visitor who has a valid ticket can participate and actively win prizes.

In order to win, a ticketholder must have clearly marked the correct answer on the drawn ticket and also show the coupon with the corresponding ID number, proving that the drawn ticket is truly his/hers.

The prize is awarded to the winner by the sponsor or host directly after the drawing. Photos of the winner, as well as the winner's name and other relevant data identifying the winner, will be passed on to the sponsors right after the drawing. This data will exclusively be used for the submission of the prize between the sponsor and the winner. The photos will not be used for any other purpose without the expressed written consent of the winners. If the owner of the drawn ticket isn't present when the ticket is drawn, the entitlement to win the prize will be forfeited and a new winner will be found via an additional drawing.

After each round of drawings, the raffle box will be emptied, so that each visitor will be able to participate in only one big ITB travel raffle per day. ITB Berlin takes no responsibility for the travel raffle prizes. The travel agreement for all the travel prizes which are won takes place directly between the winner of the travel prize and the sponsor of the travel prize. Messe Berlin GmbH is only the intermediary and excluded from any liability. Legal recourse is excluded. Winnings will not be paid out in cash nor is there any possibility for prizes to be exchanged.

All persons aged 18 or older can participate, however each person can only participate one time per day on each of the Private Visitor Days (9th -10th March 2019) and personal identification is required. ITB exhibitors, trade visitors, press, employees of Messe Berlin GmbH and all members of the ITB travel raffle staff are excluded.

By participating in the ITB travel raffle, the participant acknowledges these terms and conditions.

* Each visitor can participate in only one drawing per day.
